Improved Uniform International Sunday School Lesson

Lesson for May 8

PETER AND THE RISEN LORD

LESSON TEXT—John 20:1-10; 21:1-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Forgives Peter.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Forgives and Restores Peter.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Risen Lord Appears to Peter.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Fellowship With the Risen Lord.

I. Peter and John at the Empty Tomb (John 20:1-10).

John does not enter into a description of the resurrection of Christ or attempt a proof other than that the tomb was empty and that Jesus had repeatedly manifested Himself to the disciples after the tomb had been found empty.

1. How they came to know (vv. 1, 2).

The information was brought by Mary Magdalene out of whom Jesus had cast seven demons (Mark 16:9, Luke 8:2). Prompted by love for Him, she went early to the tomb, "while it was yet dark," and found the stone rolled away and the tomb empty. Her love for Jesus was genuine, though her knowledge of His resurrection was defective. She could not rest till she had done her utmost for Him because she realized that great good had come to her from His hands. The reason was not so little for the Lord is that we have such a dim sense of His saving grace.

2. Their investigation (vv. 3-10).

The news of the empty tomb, which Mary brought with breathless haste, moved John and Peter that they both ran to investigate. Upon arrival at the tomb John gazed upon it, but Peter entered it. John, with holy reverence, hesitates. Peter, with impulsiveness, enters the tomb at once. Their respective actions are not to be explained on the basis of degrees of love for the Lord, but to temperment. The investigation convinced them. The removal of the stone from the sepulcher, the arrangement of the graveclothes all convinced them that it had not been done by an enemy.

II. The Charge of the Risen Lord to Peter (John 21:15-17).

Jesus put to Peter the thrice repeated question, "Lovest thou me?" Then He gave him a commission. This shows that supreme love to Christ is the one essential qualification for serving Him. Love is the spring from which all Christian activity flows. He asked, also, to show that there are three classes in the church which demand care and attention. These three classes need special care and food.

1. Feed my lambs (v. 15).

This first charge relates to those who are beginning the Christian life—the babes in Christ. The word "feed" means more than instruction. It means in addition to instruction that proper surroundings, influences and examples should be provided. As a Christian minister, Peter was to be an example, provide the proper surroundings and do the proper teaching for the young Christians, those just beginning the Christian life.

2. Tend my sheep (v. 16).

This charge shows a different class. It means to shepherd the sheep. It has application to the mature class of Christians. The duty enjoined therefore is to care for those who have passed out of their childhood into maturity. He must feed the sheep, give them proper instruction, guide them, lead them and discipline them. For this ministry the essential qualification is love.

3. Feed my sheep (v. 17).

The implication here is that Peter was charged with the responsibility of caring for the church. The word "feed" is much the same as in the first case. It means that for the aged Christians the instruction ought to be such as will be suited to their needs. This needs special emphasis today because much attention is given to the young people, but in many instances the old people are neglected.

III. Follow Me (v. 18-23).

In verse 18 is given a clear prophecy concerning Peter's death. It was to be by crucifixion. Peter once shrank from the cross, but now the Lord holds it up before him. It is not the Lord's own. He teaches here that the Christian's death is for the glory of God. Whatever may be before us, even the cruel cross, the Lord's command is to follow Him.

Our Hope

Our hope lies not in the absence of danger, but in the presence of Christ, who is able to control the storm. No church with Christ in it can be wrecked or lost. More of the living Christ, more of His love, of His teaching—Western Recorder.

Costs Self-Denial

To keep in good grace with one's own self often costs self-denial, but it pays a mighty dividend.—Herald of Gospel Liberty.

NORTH HARRISON

Quenne Rowe came home from Portland, Wednesday night, returning Friday morning. She has been at the Maine General Hospital with her mother for the past month. Mrs. Rowe is gaining and expects to leave the hospital the first of the week.

Bradford Kimball has been grafting for James Stone a few days.

Alvin Brown, Harlan Brown, also Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knightly, and aunt, Mrs. E. B. Halsey, Sunday afternoon, it being her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Halsey were in Yarmouth, Sunday, at his parents'. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Halsey have sold their farm and are to move to Bolster's Mills and live with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Whitman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Saunders, Souma and Senja Mackie drove from Bridgton to their home here Sunday afternoon. They called on the Halsey family at short time. We are all glad to know they are planning to be in the neighborhood as soon as Bridgton Schools close in June.

Mabelle Halsey went to Lewiston Saturday with Rev. and Mrs. Wentworth and spent the day with her sister, Louise Halsey, at Bates College.

Mrs. Geo. Rice attended the funeral of Fred Barton, at Sweden, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rice have moved on to Burnham Rice's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice have moved from Wilbur Button's house to a rent over Perkins' store.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Halsey, Friday evening.

SOUTH ALBANY

The welcome rain came at last and freshened things up good and clean. Then a cold snap came with snow squalls and frosty nights. The frogs had begun their spring songs but as we have not heard them for some nights think they must have thought they were mistaken in the season and gone back to winter quarters.

Ernest Brown has bought two cows of W. A. Lord of North Waterford and sold them to David McAllister.

Ingalls McAllister recently lost his only cow. She got entangled in the fire chain and threw herself in such a manner that her neck was broken.

Gardner Libby is getting ready to move away. He has engaged to work at Bridgton for the season and will move his family there soon. We all regret their going away. Miss Della, with her collie, and her new dog, are to remain here.

Mrs. Will Grover is spending some time among friends at Fryeburg and with her daughter, Mary, who is a senior at Fryeburg Academy.

Mrs. June Penfold and son Jack and Fred Record of South Paris, recently visited at Ernest Brown's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Millett and children of Waterford, Mr. and Mrs. George Crocker and son and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Klament, of Norway, visited at Meritt Sawin's, Sunday, April 24. Meritt and son, and Mrs. Millett and son, were in the party.

Oscar Wyman and Leon Shas were at Onono over the week end and attended the initiation banquet of their fraternity at the new Lambda Chi Alpha House.

Mrs. Lila Cameron entertained the Round Table Club, Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Howard Miller was in Boston a few days recently and went to the Massachusetts General Hospital for observation of the operation he had last November. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Hart, in Watertown.

CASCO

Grange Meeting and Visitors

The Casco Grange meeting of Saturday evening, April 30th, was a most enjoyable one. The ladies were given a very good dinner on the third and fourth degrees by the South Bridgton Grange, No. 19. The team arrived early, with a perfect attendance and other members, twenty-six in all, and showed from the start that their work would be interesting and instructive. The Naples Grangers arrived, thirty-two strong, and with three candidates, Chester Burnham, Eliza Dillingham, and Dr. John Bischoffberger. They brought their share of the supper and helped to entertain the guests of the evening.

Some of the older members of Casco Grange, who had not been in attendance for some time, were present, raising the attendance to one hundred and six.

After the degrees were conferred, supper was served in the dining room below the main hall. The grange being called to order by the Master, George Burgess, the following gave short talks: Rev. Fred Lyman, Irvine Barker, Sr., George Russell and Irving Barker, Jr., of Naples; George Bryant, Austin Whitney, Frank Moulton, Mrs. George Bryant of South Bridgton and Geo. L. Leland of Casco.

Cumberland and Androscoggin Grange will meet with the Naples Grange, Tuesday, May 10.
